Final Assessment Week FAQs:

If I do not have a final assessment, am I required to attend school?

Yes. Hybrid students are expected to attend school on their scheduled in-person days.

I am a Hybrid student. Will I be taking a final assessment on my virtual day?

Teachers may continue to assign virtual assessments until December 14th. Starting December 15th all virtual days will be devoted to finalizing projects and student study time.

I am a Virtual student. When will I take my final assessments?

Virtual students will take their final assessments virtually during the time frame established by their teachers.

I am a Carmel cohort student, what does an orange day mean for me?

As a Carmel cohort student, you will have finished your final exams and no longer need study time. Your teachers will determine class activity that day.

Can I leave the final assessment period once I have completed my test?

No. Students will not be allowed to leave school during a final assessment period, unless it is an emergency and permission is given by Student Services.

Can I take final assessment early due to necessary family travel or appointment?

No. Any student who has a family related conflict during final assessments will make up their final assessments once they return from their travel or appointment. No final assessments are given early.

What if I am sick on a day I am schedule to take a final assessment?

If you are unable to attend school on the day you are scheduled to participate in a final assessment due to a COVID-related absence, your parent/guardian should call the Carmel Clay Schools COVID-19 Hotline at (317) 571-4630. For any other illness-related absence, your parent/guardian should call the CHS attendance line (317) 571-5915 with details of the reason for absence. Student Services administrators will review and verify the absence with parents/guardians to determine next steps.

What if during my final assessments, I am directed to quarantine by the district or building administration?

CHS Student Services administrators will work closely with quarantined students, their parents/guardians, counselor and teachers to determine the appropriate time and place for students to take their final assessments.
